

Government Polytechnic Panaji
Department of Architectural Assistantship
Annual Report 2023-24

Following are the curricular and co-curricular activities conducted for the academic year 2023-24 during various times of the odd and even semesters;

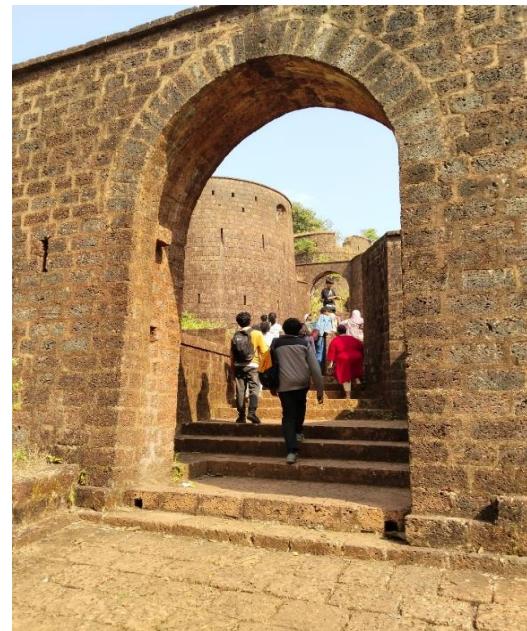

Activity-1: New Batch Orientation Program;

The new first year batch 2023 joined us after the admission rounds at the Directorate of Technical Education, Porvorim. Along with the parents the department initiated an induction session to familiarize all with the department, the facilities, the teaching layout, the evaluation, etc.

Activity-2: Students Field Visit;

Field visit was conducted to Redi Fort, Maharashtra to understand how locations are developed in context to the functions and with applications of the building technology of those times

Field visit was also conducted to Chandor to learn Conservation processes related to building structures

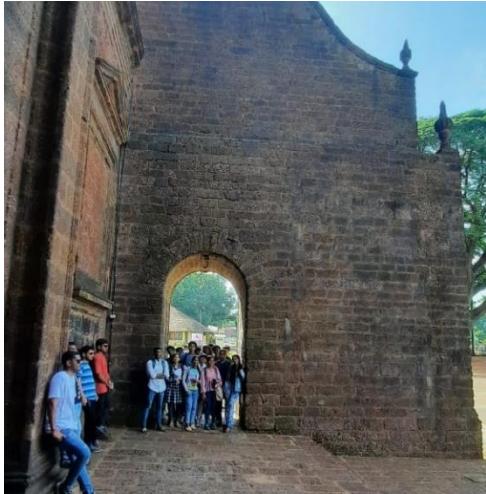

Field visit was also conducted to the Nisha School to understand sustainable Architecture and interaction with Ar.Gerard D'Cunha

Heritage walk was also conducted to understand heritage elements of Architecture for measurements and model making skills

Field visit was conducted to Old Goa to understand historical aspects of Architecture and to High Rise Building site to understand Multistoried structures and their services planning as per regulations in force

Field visit was conducted to understand Building construction technology and on site operations

Activity-3: Training Orientation:

The Final year students of third year go for training to professional offices to live experiencing professional architectural project handling, for which the orientation was conducted for one week for getting them market ready

Activity-4: Industrial Guest Lectures;

Guest lectures were conducted on water proofing industrial product, and by the alumni of the department to give a glimpse of the market issues of the Architectural profession

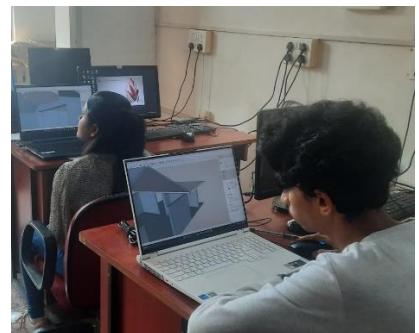

Activity-5: Learning by doing;

Sustainable Development Goals and their importance in todays world of Climate Change was part of understand and scaling and painting the logos on the space identified on the existing Courtyard Pillars of the Department.

Activity-6: Evaluation of the learnings;

Students undergo evaluation in terms of theory paper writing and also practical work execution with Viva-Voce

Activity-7: Final year Seminar;

Final year students were most energetic after their industrial training to showcase their project work and site based studies

Activity-8: Interaction and Review with Parents;

At semester end a review was conducted with the parents so that their views and our expectations could be value additions to the students

Activity-9: Toppers from 1st, 2nd& 3rdyear and Best outgoing student 2024;

Chrysann Fernandes, Amir Khan and Soniya Harmalkar are the toppers from the 1st, 2nd and 3rd year class respectively. Shubham Chopdenkar was adjudged as the Best Outgoing student of 2024.

Activity-10: Sports achievers;

Students from the 1st, 2nd and 3rd year participated in various sports events of Badminton, Table Tennis, and Cricket competitions. Namrata, Delicia, Arambhi, Pratik, Shriraj, Aryan, Chetan and Vishal.

Activity-11: Annual Student works Exhibition 2024;

The annual exhibition of students works were put on display on 14/5/2024 with interaction with the Chief Architect of PWD, Goa Ar.Marwin Gomes, and all were invited to encourage the students in their achievements of the year

Third Year Students Works:

Second Year Students Works:

First Year Students Works:

